Vaughan Says Getting Freezer Not Improper

Says He Gave Some To His Friends

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, acknowledged today that he accepted deep-freeze units as gifts to himself and some friends, but he denied there was anything improper in "this courtesy."

He said he spoke for one of the freezers for "the little White House"—the Truman's home in Independence, Mo.—and others to go to Fred Vinson, John Snyder, James K. Vardaman and Matthew J. Connelly. Still another was directed to the White House staff lunchroom.

Vinson now is chief justice of the United States. Snyder is secretary of the treasury. Vardaman, former Truman naval aide, now is a member of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System. Connelly is secretary to President Truman.

No Freezer—Snyder
Frederick told a reporter that no freezer reached him.

Senator Mundt (R-SD) immediately called for a checkup on Vaughan's claims.

Vaughan said the freeze box showed results from a talk he had in 1949 with "two old friends of mine"—Mr. Harry Hoffman and Mr. David Bennett.

Hoffman has been identified as a Milwaukee advertising man, in testimony before the senate investigating committee which is conducting an inquiry into capital "five percenters." The committee has issued a subpoena for Hoffman, but hasn't located him.

U. S. marshals waited in Milwaukee this afternoon to serve the subpoena on Hoffman after his attorney, Fred Wright, told them Hoffman was flying to the city from an unknown place and would accept the subpoena. But, later, Wright told the marshals' office that Hoffman had decided to appear in Washington voluntarily. Hoffman was in Milwaukee for a short time this afternoon, Wright declared, but he left the city again. The marshals' office quoted Wright as saying Hoffman would appear before the senate investigating committee at 10 a. m. Monday.

President Of Verley Co.

Bennett is president of the Albert Verley Co., a Chicago perfume house.

Albert Gross, the manufacturer of the freezers, testified that the Verley company paid for the units he sent Vaughan and others. John Maragon, onetime White House figure whose name has been in and out of the five percenters inquiry, has said he was employed by the Verley concern. Maragon claims to be a good friend of Vaughan.

The president's military aide issued a statement early this afternoon, breaking a long silence about the various references which have been made concerning him in the inquiry.

Vaughan said there was a simple explanation for his acceptance of the deep freezers:

"Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Bennett desired to extend this courtesy to me as a friend, and I in turn made gifts of these units to certain friends of mine."

Informed of Vaughan's statement, Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), who has been active in the senate investigation, commented:

"In view of this admission on the part of Vaughan, I would very much like to have the Verley company explain why they spent approximately $3,000 for gifts and what in turn they expected from Vaughan."

This was McCarthy's estimate of the cost of the freezers. Vaughan said, however, they were experimental models without commercial value although he did not state their worth.

Blames Tito For Greek Red Defeats

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Czechoslovak press blamed Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia today for reverses suffered by Greek communist guerrillas.

At the same time the Czech government announced it had expelled two officials of the Yugoslav embassy here and a secretary on charges of distributing bundles of propaganda leaflets in the country. The newspaper Lidove Noviny, organ of the Czech writers union, said Tito "opened his territory for the transit of Greek monarchist troops, negotiated with the Athens government and, what is more dangerous is trying to disintegrate the ranks of the Greek (guerrilla) fighters."

2 Negro Homes Bombed In Alabama Race Row

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 13.—(AP)—A tense racial zoning row erupted today in the dynamiting of two Negro ministers' home and answering gunfire by Negroes guarding the houses.

Two midnight blasts, seconds apart, rocked the adjoining Negro houses in an area zoned for whites only. Windows were shattered and a few planks knocked loose.

There was little damage although the heavy explosions were heard over most of Birmingham.

The Rev. E. B. Deyampert, one of the Negro ministers, said three of four Negroes fired with pistols and shotguns at a speeding automobile from which the bombs were hurled.

The shots apparently missed. Eighteen Negroes were on the porch or in the houses at the time, he said, but none was injured.

Asked by reporters if he planned to move, the Rev. De Yampert replied: "This is my home and I'm going to stay here." The other minister, the Rev. Milton Curry, said the same.

The houses are a half block from three others that were heavily damaged by bombs March 24.

Thronges of Negroes gathered within a few minutes. All available police rushed to the scene in patrol cars. One Negro was arrested and charged with refusing to obey an officer's command to move on.

The Rev. Deyampert said the dynamite was thrown by an unmasked white man riding on the running board of the car.

A bomb fell on the lawn about 20 feet from the front porch of the Rev. Milton Curry's house. It dug a two-foot crater. The other struck a curbing and shattered the stone.

New Law Raises License Fee, Spur Consolidation

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Legislation boosting Illinois driver's license fees and spurring school district reorganization became law today.

Under a bill given final approval by Governor Stevenson motorists will have to pay $1, instead of 50 cents, for a driver's permit.

The vast majority of Illinois auto operators obtained three year licenses in the year ended last May 1 and will not feel the increase for another two years or so.

One of the main school bills denies state aid after June 30, 1953, to high schools with average attendance of less than 15 pupils a grade.

Other major provisions: Require dissolution of all non-high school districts by July 1, 1953. After that the grade school district taking in the same territory must provide free transportation and tuition for residents of high school age.

Require trustees to disband other types of districts which fail for two consecutive years to actually operate a school.

Put a July 1, 1951 deadline on issuance of emergency teaching certificates. Such certificates represented a wartime relaxation in standards for a teaching permit.

Report Chinese People Have Put Billion In US Banks

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Chinese citizens have secreted well over half a billion dollars in this country, it was estimated today, and four federal agencies are at work to see the communists don't get it.

Drastic government action appears increasingly unlikely, it was said. The Chinese wealth has been skillfully concealed in banks and investments. Neither the Chinese nationalists nor communists may ever lay hands on it.

The security of these and other Chinese assets has been the subject of an intensive study for many weeks, officials disclosed.

The four agencies which have been deeply concerned to prevent a rich windfall from going to the communists are the State Department, the Treasury Department, the Federal Reserve System and the New York State banking superintendent. Informants here said they have been in almost daily touch.

'Gone With Wind' Author Partially Regains Senses

Atlanta, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Margaret Mitchell, author of "Gone With Wind," partially regained consciousness today and recognized friends.

She was struck down and nearly killed Thursday night by a speeding car driven by an off-duty taxi driver.

Senators Debate On What To Do With Farm Surpluses

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The senate's compromise farm price-support bill was threatened today with another sharp dispute—over how the government should get rid of some $2,000,000,000 worth of farm products it holds.

The bill now is pending in the senate agriculture committee awaiting final action.

But chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) told a reporter that he is not satisfied with the bill's feature concerning disposal measures for the cotton, wheat, tobacco, eggs, potatoes and other products Uncle Sam has taken over.

"We've got more than two billion dollars worth of farm commodities piled up now. Either we find some way to get rid of that and other products acquired under price supports or the whole program will collapse," Thomas said.

Thomas is expected to call a closed session of his 13-member committee next week to act upon the bill developed by a subcommittee headed by Senator Anderson (D-N.M.), former secretary of agriculture.

Anderson has been urging both Democrats and Republicans to agree on the new bill. He claims unanimous backing of six other members of the drafting subcommittee.

For many years the agriculture department has been supporting farm prices by a system of loans and purchases. Under the loan system, a farmer can reclaim his commodity if market prices are high enough to give him a profit after repaying the government loan and storage charges. Otherwise the government takes over the cotton, wheat or other commodity.

At the requests of Thomas, the Anderson group authorized a new "assistant secretary of agriculture in charge of sales operations," as part of the compromise bill.

He would be sort of a merchandising or sales manager for the far-flung operations of the department in moving the stocks into disposal channels.

Fout CIO Locals Vote To Strike Against IH Plants

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Four CIO locals in Chicago, Canton and East Moline, Ill., have voted in favor of a strike against International Harvester Company.

The vote resulted from failure of the company and the Farm Equipment Workers union to reach an agreement on pension and wage demands.

At Canton, union officials said production workers voted 8 to 1 and office workers voted 2 to 1 in favor of a work stoppage. In East Moline, Local 156, composed of office workers, also voted to strike. Production workers at the East Moline plant have yet to take a vote.

In Chicago, the union said workers at the company's tractor plant voted to strike by a margin of five to one.

Gerald Fiedle, chairman of the FE Harvester Council, said strike votes will be taken next Tuesday in eight other Harvester plants. These include four in Chicago, and one each in Rock Falls and Rock Island, Ill., Auburn, N. Y., and Richmond, Ind.

'States Righters' Barred From Demo Chairman Election

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Democratic National Committee today slammed the door against its "states righters" members, barring them from its next meeting to elect a successor to Chairman J. Howard McGrath.

McGrath himself sent out the blunt notice that the Louisiana and Mississippi delegates have not been invited to the August session here.

At that time William M. Boyle, Jr., now serving as the $30,000 a year executive vice chairman, is slated to take over the chairman's job—which carries no salary. McGrath is stepping out to become attorney general.

In his statement, McGrath did not clarify the status of committee members in Alabama and South Carolina which also supported the states rights party last fall. However he pointedly remarked that the "national committee member from South Carolina"—Gov. J. Strom Thurmond—"was a candidate for election on the ticket of another party."

Two Red Drives Near Nationalist Capital At Canton

Canton, China, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The communists pushed two increasingly furious drives south towards this nationalist capital today.

Official nationalist reports said the nearer one was being held in check on the outskirts of Kanhshien, 215 miles from Canton.

Private reports said the other had bypassed or captured the railway town of Hengshan, 290 miles north, and was aiming at the key railway junction of Kengyang, 265 miles north of Canton.

The government account estimated 50,000 to 60,000 Red troops were hurrying south at Kanhshien, said that they still were unable to crack the city's defenses, led by Gen. Fang Tien, governor of Kiangsi province.

The private reports said fighting was in full swing at unspecified places south of Hengshan, indicating the Reds had skirted or taken that town.

A nationalist army spokesman denied persistent rumors that 10,000 to 20,000 government troops had deserted to the communists in the Hengshan area.

HOOVER COMMISSION SAVES ITSELF $31,000

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Hoover commission, whose aim was to save you money through streamlining government operations, today reported a savings itself of $31,000.

Western Reich Picks Its Parliament Today

Hoover Stricken, But Attack Passes Quickly

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover was stricken with a gall bladder ailment aboard an east-bound train today. He continued his trip, however, after emergency treatment.

Dr. Keith Stratford of Ogden, who boarded the train here at the request of the Southern Pacific railroad, said the 75-year-old Hoover, the nation's only living former president, rallied quickly after the attack.

Hoover "is now up playing gin rummy with friends," his secretary, Bernice Miller, said in a telegram sent early tonight from Rawlins, Wyo.

Hoover is enroute to New York after celebrating his 75th birthday at a public reception at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., Wednesday.

The former president told Dr. Dale Hadfield at Elko, Nev.: "I think I am having a gall bladder attack. I have had them before and I know what they are."

Dr. Hadfield treated Hoover, then permitted him to continue the trip after advising him to seek further treatment at Ogden.

Dr. Stratford met the train and

Campaign Ends With Plea To Vote

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A German election campaign spiced with violence and anti-allied oratory ended tonight with a sober radio appeal from all parties for a vote for freedom.

Tomorrow the 45,000,000 inhabitants of Germany's three western zones will choose a 400-member parliament to set up their new west German republic. It will be the first federal election since Hitler seized power.

With numerous parties in the race and a total of more than 2,000 candidates, forecasts were that no party will win a majority and it will take a coalition of two or more parties to form the cabinet.

Bitterly Anti-Allies
The campaign has been so bitterly anti-allied that occupation authorities and many German newspapers and politicians have expressed alarm.

Tonight, however, in a joint radio broadcast, rival party leaders largely avoided criticizing the allies. Instead, they appealed to the voters on German domestic issues.

The new federal Republic is a union of the three western zones of occupation—American, British and French. It leaves outside the Russian zone, where German communists run a people's congress and a people's council—but no central government. All higher authority there is retained by the Soviet army.

The Republic's 45,000,000 population and its industrial heart—the Ruhr—make West Germany one of Europe's most powerful states even without the Russian zone.

Because of that and also because of its strategic position next to the Iron Curtain, tomorrow's vote will be closely watched.

Germans Not Excited
But the Germans themselves don't seem excited. Most predictions are that less than 70 per cent of the 31,000,000 eligible voters will go to the polls. Previous state election turnouts ran 75 per cent or better.

Both the communists and the extreme nationalists are rated among the minor parties.

Two parties closer to the middle are the chief contenders. One is the social Democratic party led by Dr. Kurt Schumacher, which preaches a socialistic program of breaking up big industrial combines and bringing them partly under state control through semi-public management.

The other party, the Christian Democratic union, defends private enterprise and has many church attachments. Its leader is Dr. Konrad Adenauer.

Together, these two parties may win two-thirds of the total vote.

But Germany again is facing the curse which helped wreck its Weimar Republic and brought Hitler to power—the multiplicity of minor parties.

There are 15 parties in the campaign. They probably will garner enough votes among them to keep any one party from carrying out its program without major compromises.

I Killed, 5 Hurt In Headon Crash Of Auto And Truck

Mexico, Mo., Aug. 13.—(AP)—One person was killed and five others were injured, three seriously, in a headon collision of an automobile and a truck near here today.

Lorraine Nelson, about 16, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nelson of Rock Island, Ill., died at the hospital here. Her parents and Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Dubuque, Ia., also were brought to the hospital suffering from severe shock and injuries.

The truck driver, identified as Delmar Cotner, about 27, of Salem, Mo., was reported to have been cut on the legs but was not seriously hurt.

Hospital authorities said the Nelsons were in such a state of shock that they had not been able to determine the full extent of their injuries.

John, who was driving, suffered a broken leg and a possible skull fracture. His wife also suffered a broken leg. Both of Ray's legs were broken. Mrs. Ray Nelson suffered a broken finger, but was suffering from severe shock.

President Of ITU Predicts Rough Times For Labor

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Woodruff Randolph, president of the International Typographical Union (ITU), predicted rough times ahead for organized labor today.

Addressing the opening session of ITU's 91st annual convention, he declared:

"The very life of this union is at stake. It has been so since the Taft-Hartley law was enacted. It will continue so until that law has been repealed."

He told some 2,000 delegates and visitors that it was vital for members to get behind the ITU's collective bargaining policies in order for the union to survive.

The leader of what is regarded as the nation's oldest labor union said: "The future holds no promise of an easy road to peaceful and happy circumstances. There is no promise even of unionism as we have known it without further struggle and sacrifice."

If Ghosts Trouble You, Send Letter To Richard Darnell

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Wanting information about any ghost-like phenomena that may be bothering you.

Richard C. Darnell, president of the society for parapsychology, said today the society would like to know about any phenomena going on in your neighborhood that can't be explained by the ordinary laws of physics. It wants to observe them, if they're continuing, and to receive a detailed report about them if they've stopped. Such reports may provide a clue to some common element that may throw light on the cause, Darnell said.

Darnell, a dealer in scientific supplies, asked that information be sent to the society's office at his business address, 615 18th street, N.W., Washington, or to the parapsychology laboratory at Duke University.

He explained to an interviewer that parapsychology is a "borderline science concerned with extra-sensory perception and other paranormal psychic phenomena."

Dozen Workers Dig 12 Hours To Free Pups From Sewer

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Two mongrel puppies trapped a basement upside down, sliced attendance at a nearby carnival and put a dozen workers to 12 hours of hard digging when they fell into a sewer last night.

Police, firemen, animal welfare league members and sewer department employees worked in relays throughout the night to rescue the pups. One was dead. The other was dripping but otherwise uninjured.

More than 100 persons attending a neighboring carnival deserted the event to watch the dozen rescuers dig.

The puppies' father is an English boxer. The mother, Queenie, is half Chow and half Spitz.

Their owner, James Liquori, discovered the pups' plight when he heard Queenie barking in the basement and found her frantically trying to crawl into the sewer hole. The puppies had fallen 12 feet.

Workers had to blast the concrete, dig a seven-foot hole in the basement and another outside the house, and tunnel through to the sewer. Then they pushed a long stick through the tunnel and shoved the puppies out.

BUDGET BLUES
Senator Wiley, Wisconsin Republican, says Congress is so staggered by the vast billions it must vote this year that it's in a daze. There cannot have been many times, indeed, when a nation's budget affairs were so confused and hobbled by delay. For the second time this summer the lawmakers have had to approve temporary resolutions authorizing expenditures by government agencies until regular appropriations can be voted.

The Senate seems to be the worst offender, having exhibited a snail's pace on virtually everything it has considered this session. Proud of its position as the "greatest deliberative body in the world," the Senate has been putting far too much accent on that word, "deliberative." Its new passion for endless debate and dickerings is not serving the country well.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Applebee of this city are among several hundred American farm and business people who will make friendship tours of European countries this fall, visiting farms of overseas "neighbors" as well as seeing the sights of world-famous spots.

Dr. and Mrs. Applebee will leave New York City on Sept. 7 by Pan American Clipper. Others making the European tour will sail from New York on the Ile de France. Both plane and ship passengers will go to Paris, from where the travelers will set out on one or another of the six tours arranged by the American Express Company.

The friendship tour will be made with the hearty approval and active cooperation of the U. S. State Department, Department of Agriculture and Economic Cooperation Administration.

Much of the time will be devoted to visits to farms selected by U. S. agricultural attaches in the several countries, the rest sightseeing. The tours include France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway, England and Scotland.

Dr. Applebee, who is secretary of the Jacksonville Savings & Loan Association, expects to attend a meeting of European building societies at Salzburg, Germany. The society is patterned after the national savings and loan association in this country.

The primary objective of the tour is to let American farmers, business men and members of their families get acquainted with their neighbors abroad, exchange "farm talks," foster international friendliness, and give American farmers a chance to judge for themselves the economic progress resulting from American aid and the efforts of the peoples of the countries visited.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Changing Places Doesn't Always Benefit Asthma

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
The term "asthma" was used by the father of medicine, Hippocrates, nearly 400 years before the birth of Christ. It means, literally, hard breathing. It was not until nearly the end of the 17th century that the word, however, was used in any other sense than to describe a person who was gasping for breath.
Shortness of breath and wheezes in the chest are common symptoms of asthma. The physician is helped in the diagnosis by listening to the chest through a stethoscope, by examining X-ray films and by skin tests.
The seat of the trouble is principally in the bronchi, which are the small tubes leading from the main breathing tube, or trachea, into the lung tissue itself. The walls of these bronchi become thickened, narrowed and filled with mucus.
Coughing Is A Signal
Sometimes the bronchial tubes also undergo contractions or spasms which still further narrow the space through which the air can pass. This narrowing explains the shortness of breath—it is simply that not enough air gets through to the lungs.
The coughing associated with asthma is nature's way of trying to enlarge the openings.
Asthma is usually due to allergy, that is, to sensitiveness of the patient to proteins outside his body. These may be inhaled proteins like horse dander or something eaten. The best results from treatment are obtained when the protein responsible can be found and eliminated.
Change of location or climate brings varying results—some are helped, others are not. A person with asthma who is forced to consider such a change, however, ought to give the new location a good long trial period before deciding on a new permanent residence.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Up Come The Old Wood Paving Blocks

The job of tearing up the old wood paving blocks on South Sandy street Friday appeared to be easy for a tractor and operator. A scoop in front of the tractor lifted the wood blocks out of their resting place, after which they were tossed into trucks and hauled away. The wood blocks will be taken up from all loop streets which will be repaved during the next few months. The Sangano Construction Co. of Springfield is doing the work. Numerous spectators watched the proceedings Friday on Sandy street, the first street to surrender its old wood pavement, laid more than 30 years ago.

Half Of Hospital Space Occupied By Mentally Ill

"With over half of the nation's hospital beds occupied by persons mentally ill, the problem of mental health has become a major one for the federal department of public health," Dr. Robert Dysinger told members of Rotary during the regular club meeting Friday noon.

Dr. Dysinger, son of Dr. and Mrs. Wendell S. Dysinger of this city, is mental health consultant of public health, for an area including the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and all the New England states.

The speaker pointed out that the problem had not received the attention due it until the large number of men rejected in the last war for mental reasons dramatized the need for better mental care.

In 1945 congress passed a National Mental Health act, and in 1947 passed an appropriation act to make it operative.

The department of public health, under the act, is helping the states by allocating grants in aid for the training of personal to treat mental illness and for the continuance and development of research progress. The third phase of the federal program, in which Dr. Dysinger is active, is the setting up of local programs whereby communities can act to reduce the number of mental patients going to state institutions. A local mental health clinic, Dr. Dysinger stated not only helps people solve some of their more mental problems but also discloses some of the factors in community life that are causing mental breakdowns. The speaker was introduced by James Bunting, program chairman.

Steers moved up to a top of $28.75 this week, choice offerings advancing around 50 cents. Most good and choice fed steers and yearlings brought $25.50 to $28. Steer and heifer beef rose about $1 in the wholesale trade, supporting the advance in live animal costs.

Spring lambs closed the week down to $2 lower in a generally weak sheep section.

SELLING CAUSES GRAIN PRICE SLIDE; LOSSES AROUND 2c

Chicago, Aug. 13—(P)—Selling from commission houses and local traders pushed grain prices lower on the Board of Trade. Losses ran to around 2 cents in corn at times and dealings slow at the start, picked up speed as prices slid late in the session.

Cash corn prices again worked lower as 120 cars of the grain arrived here today. Sales of No. 1 yellow corn were made at a premium of 63 cents over the September delivery. At the start of August the premium on this grade was 12 1/2 to 13 cents over September.

News dispatches stating lower support prices for grains would result from a revised parity formula, as proposed in a new senate farm bill, caused some of the liquidation.

Traders also were concerned over the storage problem for both wheat and corn later in the year.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 to 2 cents lower, September $2.00-1; corn was 2 to 3 cents lower, September $1.19-1.19. Oats were 1-1 1/2 lower, September 65-1; rye was 1-1 1/2 lower, September $1.47-1; soybeans were 1-1 1/2 lower, September $2.35-1; and lard was 8 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $12.27.

Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carlots here today—wheat 30; corn 120; oats 42; rye 11; barley 13 and soybeans 35.

Receipts include 20 cars of soybeans for CCC account.

Crimson Footballers Seeking First Central Loop Crown Since 1937

By John Campbell

With the opening of football practice August 25, the members of the Central conference will begin the 13th season. Lanphier of Springfield are the defending grid champs. The Solon preppers have won 7 Central titles.

Jacksonville high school won the title in the first year, 1937, and has never taken it since. Several times the Crimsons have finished near the top in the final standings.

Coach Bob Kraushaar has eight lettermen back for his 1949 team: Ruel Becker, Bob Oris, Jack Chapman, Dick Gottschall, Bruce Salmoor, Harvey Meyers, John Walker and Ronald Campbell. Samore, Walker and Campbell are backs. The other men are linemen.

By Bob Morris

A Saturday visitor in the Journal-Courier office carried your editor back to the days of yore. It was in the year 1910 that Jacksonville, along with Burlington, Ia., Carbonale, Ill., and several other cities, had a professional baseball representative in the Central League. Bruce I. Hayes, a right fielder on the Jacksonville club of 1910, stopped over on his way to Nashville, Tenn., where he scouts for the Nashville Colonels minor league team.

Together with Mr. Hayes, we jumped in our time machine (old newspaper files) and were whisked backward four decades. Jacksonville had a baseball team to be reckoned with in those days. The word "softball" had not yet been coined, and the fans were wild over the 90 foot sport. We were filled with nostalgia just listening to Mr. Hayes tell about "the good old days."

Mr. Hayes, although on a vacation, took a busman's holiday and checked on a few local athletes while in town. He watched Charley Due, already signed with the Washington Senators, and Ferrell Mitchell perform on the IC field Saturday afternoon.

After witnessing the Soldier Field Massacre Friday night, it was quite a relief to slip back into Jacksonville where the athletes may not be so skilled but are a heap more competitive. Chicago, the breeding ground of violence, should promote a "be kind to All-Stars week" this time of the summer. As we see it, the only way to keep the collegians from getting trampled is to knock off the class.

Sure the college boys have beaten the old pros five times in the past 16 years, but even an All-Star head coach who tutored one of the winners exclaimed "we wuz lucky, nine out of ten times such a game should be declared 'no contest'."

The gate receipts go for an outstanding cause, so there shouldn't be any complaints. We had only one suggestion to make to Arch Ward before we left Chicago. Why not use some of the money to install television at Soldier Field so fans sitting where we did during the just ended affair could see the game?

With that, this corner's parent leaves the sports fans of Jacksonville and vicinity for two weeks. We're going on vacation—who said that?—in case something happens and we're never again privileged to pound out "Fan Breezes" for the good people of Morgan, Scott, Pike, Greene, etc., counties. We apologize for the trodden toes, complete over-sights, and downright "gutter journalism" that our followers have had to contend with. So till we return, we'll say adios, adieu and 23-skiddoo.

Many more candidates will turn out to greet Coach Kraushaar and his assistants at the initial practice. Beardstown A Contender

Beardstown, always a strong contender in the Central conference, will have another good team led by co-captains Jack DeWitt and Dick Moore. Nick Carter is starting his eleventh season as head coach at Beardstown. He has turned out several very strong teams. Beardstown clubs have won the title in football in this conference with a co-championship in 1940 with Lanphier; a title in 1942; tied with Lanphier and Feltshans in 1944 and won again in 1946.

Carlville is beginning the second year in the Central loop, with Howard Lester as the new mentor. He served at Winchester last year. Captain Jerry Van Winkle at center will lead the Cavaliers this fall. They open the season at Pekin with the Chinks in the new Bowl that seats 10,000 spectators. Carlville has been strong in recent years as rivals in the tough South Central conference will remember.

Clinton Doubles In Spades

Clinton high under Coach Frankie Leach, starting his second season as head of the Maroons, plays in both the Corn Belt and Central loops. Clinton high, always strong in basketball, is the home of Gene Vance, former University of Illinois Whiz Kid.

Lanphier of Springfield, perennially strong in football and basketball in the Central conference, has turned out some great athletes. Among the outstanding in Ray Ramsey, former Bradley U. star and member of a pro team in Chicago. Lanphier has the distinction of having won more football titles than any other member of the league with seven championships.

Marvin Schultz, former star football player at Feltshans and Bradley U., and a 1949 graduate of the Peoria university, is the new football mentor at Feltshans of Springfield. He replaces Earl Wax, new principal at that high school. Feltshans has tied for the title in 1941 with Clinton; tied with Beardstown and Lanphier in 1944 and won the title in 1947.

Leonard And Cubs Beat Reds 5 To 4

Chicago, Aug. 13—(P)—Dutch Leonard presented with a few runs today and he made the difference to give the Chicago Cubs a 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds before a gathering of 14,097.

Two errors by Grady Hatton helped the Cubs to two unearned runs out of a cluster of three in the third inning. In the fifth they tallied another pair. Hank Sauer doubled, Herm Reich and Roy Smalley singled and then Reich scored on a double steal for what proved the decisive tally.

Leonard yielded eight hits, one of which was Walker Cooper's 16th homer. It was his fifth victory and his first at Wrigley Field this season. Howie Fox suffered his 12th defeat.

Tigers Outslug Brownies 12 To 9

Detroit, Aug. 13—(P)—The Detroit Tigers climbed into the American league's first division today, beating St. Louis 12 to 9 in one of the wildest games Briggs stadium has seen this year.

The Tigers used three pitchers and the Brownies five as each team collected 11 hits. The Tiger total included home runs by Vic Wertz, Hoot Evers, Johnny Groth and Dick Wakefield.

Lou Kretlow, who took over for Detroit starter Ted Gray in the third and did a creditable relief job until the Browns chased him with four runs in the eighth, was the winning pitcher. The loser was Al Papp, the St. Louis starter.

Bucs Force Cards Into Tie For Lead With 6 To 3 Win

St. Louis, Aug. 13—(P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates forced the St. Louis Cardinals to share the National league's top perch again with the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight by snapping the Redbirds' five-game winning streak, 6 to 3, before 25,745 disappointed fans.

The Dodgers were idle today because of rain.

Little Murry Dickson, although touched for 11 hits, was tight in the clutches and received some solid batting support from his mates.

Ralph Kiner pounded out his 20th homer, to the Vern Stephens of the Boston Red Sox for the major league lead.

Kiner's boundary belt touched off a three-run rally in the fourth. The Pirates added two more on singles by Dixie Walker, Joe Bockman, Monte Bascall's fly and Phil Masi's single.

The Corsairs sent Red Munger to the showers with a two-run spurge in the fifth. Tom Saffell and Johnny Hopp singled and Walker brought them both across with his third hit, a long double to left center.

Tubby Ted Wilks came in after Walker's blow and got the side out, but the Smoky City outfit got to him for a run in the seventh on Stan Rojek's single, Saffell's double and Kiner's fly.

Ron Northey opened the Card scoring with a left field double in the second. Glenn Nelson fanned and Joe Garagiola was purposely passed. Tommy Glaviano crossed up the strategy by singling Northey in, but Munger fanned for the third out.

Dickson then blanked his former manager until the fifth when three straight singles by Red Schoendienst, Lou Klein and Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter's infield tap produced two runs.

Northey opened the eighth with his second double, but Dickson stifled the threat, added by a great stop by Rojek of Glaviano's grounder for the third out.

The defeat snapped Munger's winning string which had reached five straight. It was also the first time in their last six games that the Redbird starting pitcher failed to finish.

Zaharias Widens Lead In Tam Pro Women's Golf

Chicago, Aug. 13—(P)—Babe Didrickson Zaharias of Denver, Colo., widened her margin to nine strokes at the three-quarter mark of the "world women's professional golf meet" at Tam O'Shanter with a third round 75 today.

That gave the long-driving Babe a 54-hole aggregate score of 222. Tied for second in the eight-player field with 231's were Louise Suggs, Carrollton, Ga., who fired a 76, and Patty Berg, Minneapolis veteran, whose 81 was her highest round of the tourney.

Babe's 35-40 round for Tam's feminine par 38-39-76 test made it almost certain she would nail down the $12,000 top prize in tomorrow's windup.

PEPSI COLA NINE WINS AT MACOMB

The Jacksonville Pepsi Cola softball team grabbed a 2-1 pitchers' duel from Max Miller's sporting goods team at Macomb Friday night. Willie Schofield limited the Macomb hitters to three safeties in taking the 5-inning decision. Pepsi batsmen collected four hits.

JACKSONVILLE MISSES—SPRINGFIELD HITS

The girls softball team pictured above has been playing a dual role this season. Comprised mostly of Jacksonville girls, the club started the current campaign playing in the local Jay-Cee restaurant. They played several games at the Southside park and realized more than their share of success, as a record of 23 wins and 8 losses will substantiate.

The Misses managed by Russ Cole, changed their brand a few weeks ago and began performing for Fitzpatrick's Lumber Co. at Springfield. Slated to compete in the state girls softball tournament in Peoria next week, they were entered as the Jacksonville Fitzpatrick Lumber squad.

Heavy favorites in the state classic, the Jacksonville—Springfield team, will play its first game against the Pastime Club Girls Friday at 9:30 p.m. The tourney will end Monday night with the championship fray carded for 8 o'clock.

After the local finalists dropped Mt. Sterling from the running with a stirring 4-3 win, claimed by right fielder Chris Copeland's two-run homer, the House of Clay athletes fought past Myers Bros. in a hectic 2-1 semi-final tilt Friday night.

The House of Clay one-run victory was symbolic of all the preceding games in this year's tournament. The most lopsided score of the eight-team classic came in the third game of the first round when Pittsfield tamped the Jacksonville Implement Dealers 4-0. Even that will be recorded as a close game.

Quincy Wins Close Contests

In fighting their way through the bottom bracket, the Quincy American Legion Post 903 entry, also squeaked through with a pair of narrow victories. The colored Gem city outfit pushed two runs across the plate in the seventh inning to knock a battling Winchester V.F.W. nine from the running by a 4-2 margin in their first night out. Their 1-0 win over Pittsfield's Wade-stocked club in Friday night's semi-finals proved anti-climax to Clay's jarring victory over Myers Bros.

The House of Clay boys' heroic battle through to the sectional finals is further highlighted by the fact that only a last minute decision on the part of A.S.A. commissioners made them eligible to compete in the sectional. As runners-up behind the Winchester V.F.W. in the local district tournament held at Nichols park two weeks ago, they were allowed to enter the sectional when officials hastily decided to conduct a similar tourney at Macomb.

Had there been no sectional at Macomb, the Macomb Bruins and district winner would have entered this tourney, thereby shoving the Jacksonville and Mt. Sterling district runner-ups out of the picture. Clay Says We'll Win

When Mr. Clay, sponsor of the Jacksonville team, was contacted Saturday night, he declared that he believed his boys had a good chance to win the championship and the trip to the Danville state finals that goes with it. "Quincy has a good club and a great pitcher, but I believe that we will win," was Clay's ready answer to our questions.

Nesbitt (House of Clay pitcher) is a steeper hurler than Gordon (Quincy twirler) and the boys are primed to take the title," the House of Clay sponsor continued. Nesbitt, by the way, is the only addition that Clay has made to his team in six years. The big right hander joined the team this season.

A special bus will haul Quincy fans to Jacksonville for the final bout this evening. A record turnout is expected to see the Jacksonville and Quincy clubs vie for a crack at the state finals.

Two Negro Softball Clubs Vie For Crack At State Championship

By the Journal Sports Editor

If first-round and semi-final games can be used as a sounding board, Jacksonville softball fans should steel themselves for a mighty battle when the House of Clay and Quincy American Legion clubs clash for the A.S.A. sectional tournament championship at the Southside park this evening.

The crown tussle this season is unprecedented in that it marks the first time that two colored nines have met for the championship in this section. Tonight's game is even more unique because the finalists represent the only Negro softball clubs in the entire section.

For the Jacksonville House of Clay squad, the tangle will represent its first venture into the sectional finals in the 11 years that they have been sponsored by the House of Clay Tavern. Never before has the team advanced past the first game in a sectional state play-off.

Irony Heaped On Drama

An ironic touch was heaped on the drama of the tournament, when Mr. Clay's boys edged out Julius Wags' Mt. Sterling nine in the first game of the meet. The House of Clay victory was in direct contrast to last year's results when Wags' club eliminated the local colored team in the first game.

After the local finalists dropped Mt. Sterling from the running with a stirring 4-3 win, claimed by right fielder Chris Copeland's two-run homer, the House of Clay athletes fought past Myers Bros. in a hectic 2-1 semi-final tilt Friday night.

The House of Clay one-run victory was symbolic of all the preceding games in this year's tournament. The most lopsided score of the eight-team classic came in the third game of the first round when Pittsfield tamped the Jacksonville Implement Dealers 4-0. Even that will be recorded as a close game.

Quincy Wins Close Contests

In fighting their way through the bottom bracket, the Quincy American Legion Post 903 entry, also squeaked through with a pair of narrow victories. The colored Gem city outfit pushed two runs across the plate in the seventh inning to knock a battling Winchester V.F.W. nine from the running by a 4-2 margin in their first night out. Their 1-0 win over Pittsfield's Wade-stocked club in Friday night's semi-finals proved anti-climax to Clay's jarring victory over Myers Bros.

The House of Clay boys' heroic battle through to the sectional finals is further highlighted by the fact that only a last minute decision on the part of A.S.A. commissioners made them eligible to compete in the sectional. As runners-up behind the Winchester V.F.W. in the local district tournament held at Nichols park two weeks ago, they were allowed to enter the sectional when officials hastily decided to conduct a similar tourney at Macomb.

Had there been no sectional at Macomb, the Macomb Bruins and district winner would have entered this tourney, thereby shoving the Jacksonville and Mt. Sterling district runner-ups out of the picture. Clay Says We'll Win

When Mr. Clay, sponsor of the Jacksonville team, was contacted Saturday night, he declared that he believed his boys had a good chance to win the championship and the trip to the Danville state finals that goes with it. "Quincy has a good club and a great pitcher, but I believe that we will win," was Clay's ready answer to our questions.

Nesbitt (House of Clay pitcher) is a steeper hurler than Gordon (Quincy twirler) and the boys are primed to take the title," the House of Clay sponsor continued. Nesbitt, by the way, is the only addition that Clay has made to his team in six years. The big right hander joined the team this season.

A special bus will haul Quincy fans to Jacksonville for the final bout this evening. A record turnout is expected to see the Jacksonville and Quincy clubs vie for a crack at the state finals.

Should the House of Clay team win, they will have the distinction of becoming the first Jacksonville team to participate in the state classic since Myers Bros. club turned the trick in 1946.

Game Time Is 8:45

The championship match will get underway at 8:45 this evening. The Jacksonville Myers Bros. and Pittsfield nines will meet for consolation honors in a 7:30 preliminary.

Trophies for the first, second and third place have been provided by the Jacksonville Recreation Club who, with the cooperation of the Amateur Softball Association (represented in this area by Herschel Heaton), are sponsoring the tournament.

The sectional champion will represent this part of Illinois in the state softball tournament which gets underway August 24 at Danville.

Stephens 30th Homer Gives Bosox 5-1 Win Over Nats

Boston, Aug. 13—(P)—Vern Stephens couldn't have selected a more opportune time today for his 30th home run of the season, lining it into the left field nets for three Red Sox mates on base in the 12th inning for a 5-1 Boston decision over the Washington Senators.

It was Steve's second grand slammer of the season and ended a game, twice delayed by heavy drizzle, which lasted three hours and ten minutes.

Steve picked on the first pitch to him by Joe Haynes, second Washington hurler, who was charged with his eighth loss.

9th Inning Rally Gives Yanks 9-7 Victory Over A's

Philadelphia, Aug. 13—(P)—The New York Yankees, their backs to the wall, staged a four run ninth inning rally today to overcome the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-7.

Dick Fowler started his own downfall by walking Hank Bauer to open the ninth. Fowler got Charley Keller to fly out but that was the last Yank he retired.

Pinch-hitter Johnny Lindell singled and Pinch-hitter Billy Johnson followed with a base clearing double to tie the score at 7-7. Johnson took third on the throw to the plate.

Kirkham And Mitchell Rained-Out League Park Golf Finalists

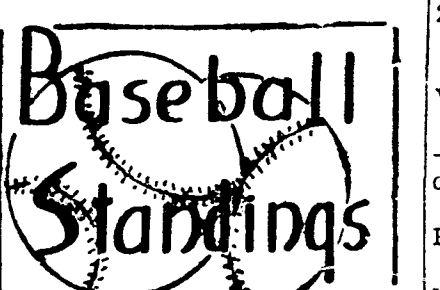

Bob Kirkham, reigning Nichols park golf champion, will defend his title against Homer Mitchell in a 36-hole match on the South Jacksonville greens today. Both men are noted local amateur golfers.

The teeters won their way into the finals by defeating a number of prominent Jacksonville golfers in a series of 18-hole matches held during the past month. The tournament is an annual affair and the winner is pitted against the Jacksonville Country club champion, represented again this summer by Jimmy Buckley, for the city crown.

Kirkham downed Red Worral in his semi-final match while Mitchell ousted Herschel Heaton from the running to jump into the finals.

In charge of the Nichols park links, announced that a trophy will be awarded the park champion.

Kirkham and Mitchell will shoot 18-holes in a session starting at 9:30 Sunday morning. A concluding 18-hole match will start at 1:30 this afternoon and will decide the Nichols park golf champion.

THE STORY: Gaynel Teare, breadwinner of a once well-to-do family which is now reduced to moderate circumstances, has always expected to marry Barry Bainbridge, a young millionaire. But now she has met a young newspaperman, Fritz Freyman, who is not wealthy but lots of fun. Fritz calls one evening when Gaynel has a date with Barry and they all go places together.

Gaynel turned her head from the windows. "Only what he's told me. That he's a newspaperman, over 21. What difference does it make? One never knows anyone. Except from one's own negative impression. We are influenced and molded from every contact we make, don't you think? Especially by pleasant folks."

"Oh," she added, seeing that Barry really was concerned, and to tease a bit—Barry was such a conventional creature beneath his veneer. "I know Fritz is perfectly okay, if that's what you mean. His people may not be in any social register, but they're good stock. Solid Dutch Pennsylvanians. Pioneers. Fritz told me his great-grandfather came West with Daniel Boone, as far as the Kentucky River, but that, unlike Boone, he didn't make a getaway from the Redskins, but was scalped, or hung for a horse thief in attempting a break, or some such heroic ending."

"Do you think that's quite fair?"

"You know I'm not interested in Freyman's family-tree. I'm only interested in that influence you spoke of so far as it concerns you. And in how much you are interested in him."

"That's nice of you," Gaynel said. "Everyone seems to have taken a sudden-interest in my affairs. Emily thinks I've deceived her, because I didn't drag Fritz home for a once-over the minute I met him. Denny tried to pump me as to how we met. Even Pat behaves as though Fritz were a jack-in-the-box—I suppose because of magicians' sleight-of-hand tricks with kittens. Ours have been christened Punch and Judy, if you please, and are doing nicely, thank you."

"My mistake," Barry said. "Certainly I didn't mean to busy-body. I only thought I held a minor claim. Unless the prerogative of friendship of long standing—and true—doesn't mean a thing."

Gaynel reached over to lay a hand in his. "You know better than that, Barry. You've a perfect right to be concerned as to my friends, though I do think I ought to be able to take care of myself, if I'm ever going to—and make my own decisions."

"But I wasn't fair," she added, withdrawing her hand from Barry's clasp that had tightened with what seemed uncalled for significance. Surely Barry wasn't going sentimental on her—did she want him, or didn't she? Which ever it might be, this was hardly the time or the spot. She crushed out her cigarette. "Isn't there someplace we can go where we can talk?" she asked. "I want to claim that prerogative now. Unburden a few small matters on your wide shoulders. Maybe even drop a tear or two on your manly bosom, if I may."

"That's what my bosom and shoulders are for," Barry returned. "I was going to ask if you'd take a run out to the airport with me. We can talk on the way. There's a new plane I want you to see—we'll even go up for a bit, if you care to. At any rate, I'd like your okay before I sign on the dotted line. So you see, Gaynel, I lean on your slender shoulders for some things, too, which events it up."

He came around to help her with her coat, letting his hands rest on her shoulders a moment. "Such lovely shoulders," he said. "You look especially pretty today, Gaynel. That new bonnet is so absurdly fashionable, and alluringly becoming. But then," his eyes smiled into hers, "you always look nice, my dear. So terribly attractive that I can't imagine anything nicer than spending the rest of my life just looking at you."

"I haven't a quarter," Gaynel laughed. "Or even a thin dime. But thanks for them few kind words, Mister."

She glanced into the paneled mirror, which showed their reflections as they passed.

'AMERICA'S SO BIG, SO WIDE, SO FREE'

Miss Hedwig Hugentobler of Zurich, Switzerland, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Earl Boucher, 944 North Prairie street, (right). The latter holds a gift from her cousin, a hand-tooled leather purse.

Finds U.S. Land Of Wide Spaces And Small Houses

BY CECIL TENDICK

Hedwig Hugentobler has been in the United States for three months, but its size still amazes her.

"You can travel for days and days and still be in the United States. It's so big, so wide, so free," she exclaimed.

Hedy is from Switzerland. She landed in New York in mid-May and has been visiting relatives from New York to California ever since. Right now she's spending a few days with her "right" cousin, Mrs. Earl Boucher, 944 North Prairie street.

She's a lively, merry miss with brown hair and eyes that fairly match the shimmering blue of the famous lake that borders her home in Zurich canton. She's a clerk-typist of a Swiss insurance company. Her father is a retired government employee.

Most Any Language

Like most Swiss, Hedy would rather use German, but if she meets somebody stuck with one language she can switch to either English, French or Italian. Her high school English, she admits, has been pepped up greatly in the last few years.

"Everybody in Switzerland now studies English very hard. Most of our visitors speak it," she observed.

Thousands of English and U. S. soldiers spent furloughs in Switzerland. "Sometimes the streets turned brown. G. I.'s would stand for hours looking into the shop windows, looking mostly for watches and jewelry," Hedy recalled.

Trade, Business Good

Her land has made great gains recently. It is prosperous. The precision parts factories and the silk, wool and cotton looms are busy. There is no unemployment. Rather, the traditionally large Swiss military which has guarded the crossroads of the direct European trade routes, north and south, east and west, since time immemorial has absorbed so much manpower that "there is a scarcity of people to work."

Hedy has been impressed by the women in America and their freedoms. In Europe, she said, the women work very hard, "but when it comes to the church or the school or the community, they are not considered. In America the women vote and I think that is right."

A moment later she disclosed her European training by stooping to retrieve a sheet of notes dropped by the interviewer.

Liked The Pacific

She flew from New York to San Francisco, "so far high up you could see nothing." She loved the Pacific ocean and San Jacinto valley. A skiing enthusiast and an annual visitor at the international St. Moritz winter sports area, she stuck to swimming in California.

"I can ski when I get home," she observed.

She feels that many more Americans would visit Switzerland if they realized "that it doesn't cost so very much. Of course you can spend much in certain places, but there are many inns where you can get a room and meals for $4 a day. I haven't done that well in your country."

Swiss Houses Tall

The one-story cottages which abound in America are a constant surprise, Hedy says. Most Swiss houses are three, four and five stories high, for there a mountainous region less than one-third as large as Illinois has a population of 4,500,000.

"We'll never forget the American bombers, thousands of them flying over Zurich at a time. The police said to go to the cellars, but we went to the 'Dach.' I mean to the roofs, so we might see better."

Miss Hugentobler will leave Jacksonville soon to visit relatives in Pennsylvania. She plans to return to her home next month.

Plan Fishing Rodeo For Boys And Girls Under 18; Many Prizes

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold a fishing rodeo for all boys and girls under 18 years of age on Saturday, August 27 from 1 to 6 p.m.

The rodeo, believed to be the first of its kind in Jacksonville, is part of a national program designed to "promote better fishing among all youth. It is estimated that more than two million boys and girls will participate across the nation."

Many prizes await the winners of various classifications here. The grand prize, to be presented to the boy or girl who catches the longest fish, will receive a complete fishing outfit including rod, reel, line and lures, donated by Better Fishing Incorporated. This will be presented by Mayor Hoagland.

All children under 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult. The contest will take place along the west bank of Morgan lake from the causeway to Vandallia road, and east along the south side of Vandallia road to the east shore of the lake.

Fish must be hooked and landed by individual contestants. Furthermore, only single hooks and lines will be allowed. Fly casting and bait casting are within the rules.

No Boats Allowed

No boats will be allowed. All fishing must be done from the bank. All protests and problems which arise relative to the contest will be left for final determination by the Fishing Rodeo Committee.

This committee consists of Henry A. Doller, chairman, Willard Ranson, Ralph Withee, Harlan Williamson, Bob Jameson, Harry Story, Jack Mathews and Robert Fay.

In addition to the grand prize mentioned above, four prizes will be given to boys competing and four to girls. The grand prize will be given to either a boy or a girl.

Will Take Moving Pictures

During the course of the afternoon, moving pictures will be taken of the young fishermen. These films will be sent to a central point where a national film will be made. This will be shown throughout the United States.

Each contestant will receive a copy of the conservation pledge. This is put out by the State Department of Conservation and is a requisite to good sportsmanship.

As for the tagged fish already in the lake, they too will offer additional prizes. These fish were put into Jacksonville lakes recently by the Sportsman's club.

All prizes will be exhibited in the window at Withee's Sporting Goods shop on South Main street.

All fishermen must furnish their own tackle and bait and free coke will be distributed to the young contestants.

But even the unlucky fisherman will not be forgotten. The boy or girl catching the smallest fish will get a prize—before the fish is tossed back.

Gary Hudson And Malcolm Stewart To Attend Meeting

President H. Gary Hudson of Illinois college and Dr. Malcolm F. Stewart, professor of philosophy and religion, will participate in a conference on integrated education to be held August 21 through August 25 at the Montecito school, Santa Barbara, Calif. The conference has been called by the Foundation for Integrated Education of New York with which Dr. J. Randolph Sarnett, executive director of the Religion in Education Foundation of Los Angeles, is collaborating.

Invitations to attend the conference were limited to 100 college educators of whom only 10 were asked to attend from campuses east of the Mississippi river. President Hudson and Dr. Stewart were requested to participate following Dr. Sarnett's visit to the Illinois college campus last October during a tour of colleges and universities.

Dr. Sarnett stated after his visit that he was impressed by the high degree of general integration represented in the Illinois college curriculum and the linking of moral and spiritual values with academic studies. He reported an increasing interest in these values as an integrating factor in the education of college students.

Calkins, Ottawa, Win State Fair Award For Typical Farm Family

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Bronzed, wiry Harold Calkins, 45, of Ottawa, his wife, Olive, 49, and their two teenage children today were picked as the 1949 typical Illinois farm family.

Their selection was the feature event of the state fair's second day. The prizes included a new car and an expense-paid fair visit.

With the help of his son, Charles, 19, Calkins farms 200 acres in LaSalle county where he and his wife have spent their entire lives. Mary Lou, 15, the daughter, is a sophomore at Ottawa township high school.

Eleven Others Compete
The Calkinses won out in competition with 11 other families, all chosen as district winners in polls by daily newspapers.

The winning family was picked by three judges on the basis of participation in community and farm activities, farm mechanization, the family's standing in its community and financial progress.

In other events during the fair's second day, the first blue ribbon winner in livestock contests for youthful farmers went to Janet Shoger, blond, 16 year old girl from near Oswego.

For the second straight year, she won the grand championship of the junior department's baby beef division. Her entry, "Red," earlier in the day took the championship of the shorthorn steer class. The reserve shorthorn steer championship went to John Horton, 15, of Neponset.
